Strategic Planning Definitions

Strategic Issues

What are we trying to fix, accomplish or avoid as a result of this process & plan?

Strategic issues are critical unknowns that are driving you to embark on a strategic planning process now. These issues can be problems, opportunities, market shifts or anything else that is keeping you awake at night and begging for a solution or decision.

SWOT

What are our strengths, weaknesses, opportunities & threats?

A SWOT analysis is a quick way of examining your organization by looking at the internal strengths and weaknesses in relation to the external opportunities and threats.

Mission Statement

What is our purpose? Why do we exist? What do we do?

The Mission Statement describes an organization's purpose or reason for existing.

Vision Statement

Where are we going?

A Vision Statement defines your desired future state and provides direction for where we are going as an organization.

Values Statement

How will we behave?

Your Values Statement clarifies what your organization stands for, believes in, and the behaviors you expect to see as a result.

Competitive Advantages

What are we best at?

A characteristic(s) of an organization that allows it to meet their customer's need(s) better than their competition can. What are we best at in our market?

Organization-Wide Strategies

How will we succeed?

Your strategies are the general methods you intend to use to reach your vision. No matter what the level, a strategy answers the question "how."

Strategic Objectives

What must we focus on to achieve our vision? What are the "big rocks"?

Long-term, broad, continuous statements that holistically address all areas of your organization including financial, customer, internal/operational, and people/learning.

Corporate Goals

What is most important right now to reach our long-term strategic objectives?

Annual statements that are specific, measurable, attainable, realistic and time bound (SMART). These are outcome statements expressing a result expected in the organization.

Department Goals and Action Items

Who must do what by when?

Functional goals/action items support the accomplishment of the annual objectives and align with individual performance plans.

Key Performance Indicators

How will we measure success?

Key Performance Indicators (KPI) are the key goals that you want to measure that will have the most impact in moving your organization forward. We recommend you guide your organization with measures that matter.
